BUILDING
FOUNDATIONS FOR TOMORROW

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater, Richlands High—
May she live for years untold.
In our hearts, you'll always find—
Admiration, that we hold.
Your loyal sons salute you—
Your daughters follow through.
We've lost and kept on smiling—
Our loyalty runs true.
When our task's done, by and by,
We will cheer for Richlands High.
We will cheer for Richlands High.

Sylvia French, Wilma Crawford, Maxine Russ, Mary Joyce, Lois Childress and Ralph Nearhood put finishing touches on Senior term papers.

Naomi Sparkman, Ronnie Smith, Jack Cordle, Hazel Billings, Helen Howington, Don Dye and J. E. Sword enjoy a "Student Hop."

Ruth Stilwell, Elizabeth Flanary, Doris Shortt, Wanda Lawson, Rockey Tickles, Marie Russ and Mabel Goodman admire the art exhibit.

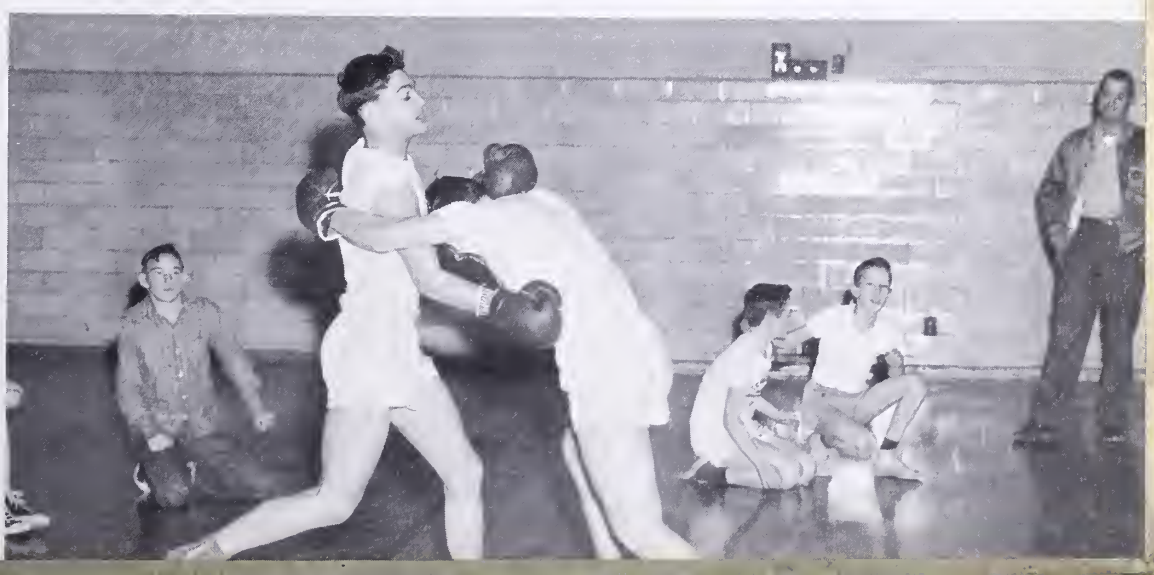
Mrs. Trent's class practices typing drills.

Mr. Grindstaff encourages physical fitness.

Miss Wallace's class learns the principles of designing.

Mr. Bandy trains future architects.

Impatient students wait to be served.



Boxing releases the "pent-up energy" of Jack Cordle and his opponent.

SCHOOL WORKERS

Miss Claypool, Miss Cruey, Loretta Hill, Phyllis Waddell, Nancy Lester, Mary Jo Sawyer, Mary Lou Thacker Bonita Pruett, Carol Meade, Linda Salyer, Jackie Elkins, Geneva Boyd, Alice Faye Nelson, and Martha Vermilya spend hours serving the school in the office.

The National Beta Club is a non-secret, leadership-service club for high school students. Its purpose is to reward merit, encourage effort and to develop character. The Beta Club seeks to promote the ideas of American Democracy among its members. Its motto, "Let us lead by serving others," is a true indication of the spirit which motivates the national organization, the local chapters, and the individual members.

The Richlands Beta Club was organized in 1956, with thirty charter members. Any junior or senior with a "B" average may become a member. Other requirements for membership are the following: good character, creditable achievement, commendable attitude, and approval of the executive head of the school.

The Club conducted the devotions each Wednesday during the season of Lent. It sponsored assembly programs; also, a Talent Show which proved to be a great success.

This year out of the forty-two members, fifteen of them attended the state Beta Convention in Roanoke.

The officers of the Beta Club are J. W. Overbay, President; James Lawson, Vice-President; Sandra Whitt, Secretary; Phyllis McGlothlin, Treasurer; Vicki Harris, Historian; Mrs. Margaret Brown and Mr. Dan Grabeel, Sponsors.

FEATURES

HOMECOMING

Queen Mary Jane Smith and King Tommy Norman.

One of the outstanding activities of the fall season was Homecoming, sponsored by the Student Council.

Preliminaries for the big day began with the selection of candidates for king and queen and members of their court by members of the student body.

A parade through town to the High School was one of the highlights of the occasion. Richlands played Graham in an exciting game which was marred by a one point defeat.

King Tommy Norman and Queen Mary Jane Smith were crowned by Mr. Powers during half time.

A dance was held in the cafeteria following the game. Members of the football team were honored at this dance by presentation of miniature footballs given to each player by the S.C.A.

Mr. Powers crowns Queen Mary Jane Smith, while Bonnie Smith holds King Tommy Norman's crown.

HOMECOMING

Norma Asbury, Jerry Addison, Queen Mary Jane Smith, King Tom Norman, Larry Baldwin, Jane Clear, Johnny Barnette, Lorraine Price, Norman Jackson, and Mary Truner watch half time activities.

Richlands charges for a touchdown.

Brenda Taylor, Betty Kyle Elswick, Naomi Horton, Ann Horton, and Drema Lewis enjoy riding on the Rainbow Float, entered by the FHA.

Tom's View

Boy's State will always be one of the happiest memories of my high school days. We left for Blacksburg on Sunday morning, arriving in time to register and to be assigned to our rooms and cities. A city consists of fifty boys. The cities competed in various sports and political elections. The most important thing in every city was the selection of a sister city. After writing mushy letters to many of the girl's cities, Barrett City finally accepted our enticing offers and became our 'sister city.'

The demerit system was used to determine when each city would eat. Our city judged by army style inspection never was the first to eat a meal.

At 5:30 every morning, we were forced out of our comfortable beds onto the wet grass and drilled for twenty minutes in rigid calisthenics. After breakfast, we attended speeches given by state politicians; these became quite boring as we heard the same jokes and same praises "You are the cream of the crop; Virginia's finest." Most of us slept through these speeches.

We had political parties, Federalist and Nationalist. Elections and conventions were held just like those in the state of Virginia.

The only thing I didn't like about Boy's State was that we didn't get to see the girls very often. I mean we could see them, but we couldn't get close to them.

The Governor's Ball climaxed a week packed with good clean fun and knowledge of our state government. We could take real live girls to this dance; after a girl-less week, this was indeed a pleasure.

I really enjoyed Boy's State because of the people I met and the friends I made. I would like to thank all the people who made it possible for me to attend.

ERNIE HICKS STADIUM

The dedication ceremonies for the new Ernie Hicks Stadium were held on October the twenty-first, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, preceding the football game with Virginia High School of Bristol, with attorney T. G. Shufflebarger acting as master of ceremonies.

The invocation was given by the Reverend Nelson T. Barker of the First Baptist Church of Richlands. Mr. J. M. White, a member of the Tazewell County School Board, traced the growth and development of schools and athletics in Tazewell County over the past three decades.

An interesting talk was given by Mr. W. S. Powers, Principal of Richlands High School, in which he enumerated some of the ways that the new field could be used to advantage in the school program, such as commencement exercises, May Day programs, etc.

Dr. A. B. Williford, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Richlands, gave the dedicatory prayer.

The highlight of the ceremonies was the dedicatory address given by Mr. Homer Allen, President of the Maiden Springs District Athletic Association. It was through the efforts of this association that funds were raised and the stadium was made possible. Mr. Allen, also, unveiled the beautiful marker at the entrance to the field on which the following is inscribed:

ERNIE HICKS STADIUM

"Dedication to K. M. "Ernie" Hicks in his thirty-fourth year at Richlands High School in grateful appreciation of his sincere devotions to the youth of the Richlands area and for his inspiring them to achieve the finest in character and the best in sportsmanship."

Coach Hicks concluded the program with a few words of appreciation to the people who had made the stadium possible. He expressed his thanks for the honor bestowed upon him and had a grateful word of appreciation for the youth with whom he had been associated down through the years.

MAY

May Day was held May the fifteenth, on the new "Ernie" Hicks Field. The theme "Around The World" was carried out by the physical education classes; dances and costumes representing many different countries of the world were colorfully displayed, to several thousand guests.

The May Day Court consisted of Queen Phyllis McGlothlin and King Tommy Norman; Maid of Honor, Mary Jane Smith; Guard of Honor, George McGaffee; and the following attendants representing the Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman Classes; Sandra Cordle, Randall McGlothlin, Judy Casey, Harold Smith, Cinda Harris, Gerald Bobbitte, Judy Johnson, Billy Joe Massie, Jane Clear, Larry Baldwin, Alice Casey, Buddy Meadows, Linda Sword, Norman Jackson, Nancy Yeary, and Jimmy Thompson. Children of faculty members and friends served as Crown Bearers, Train Bearers, Flower Girls, and Pages.

Mr. Powers crowns Phyllis, Queen of May.

Beth Aspinwall, Miss R.H.S. accompanied Mr. Powers to the coronation.

DAY

Honor Attendants Mary Jane Smith and George McGaffee leave the scene of gay festivities.

Queen Phyllis and King Tommy lead the recessional after viewing a colorful pageant presented in their honor.

The traditional May Pole dance is presented by the freshman and sophomore physical education classes.

MAY DAY SCENES

Mary Lou Thacker, Margaret Rasnick, Alice Regon, Sandra Whitt and many others enjoy May Day dances.

Pupils, friends and parents watch May Day program.

Randall, Sandra, Cindy, Gerald, Judy, and Harold caught during an unguarded moment.

"Shades of Merry Old England"

Freshmen give their interpretation of the old-fashioned Square Dance.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Seniors dance beneath the stars.

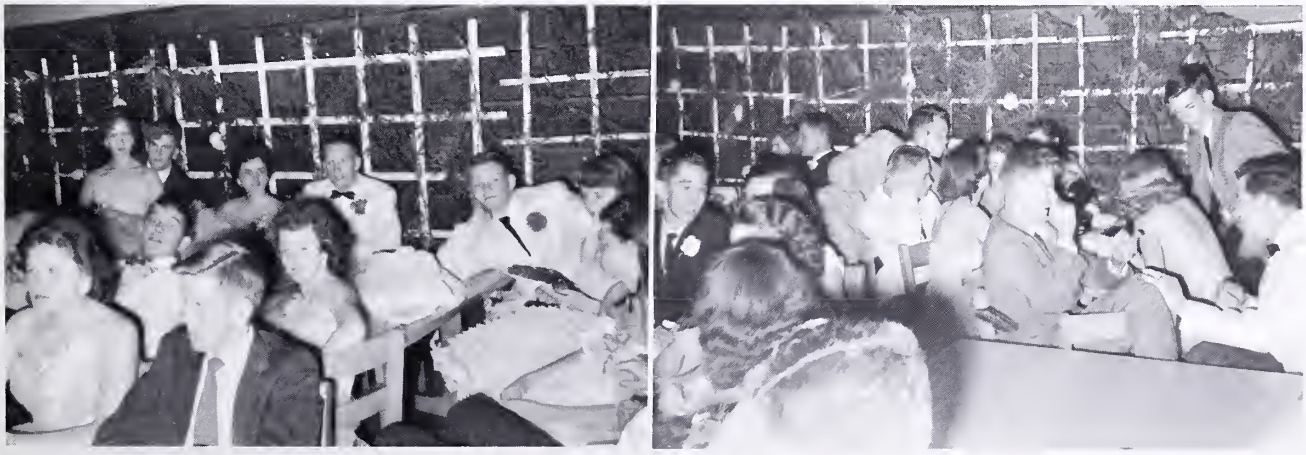
Jackie and Buddy enjoy a dance.

The class of '59 entertained the graduating class of '58 with a gala dance held May 23, in the gymnasium.

The theme for the dance was Moonlight and Roses. A big silver moon was the backdrop for the orchestra, roses covered the trellis around the dance floor, and the blue ceiling was sprinkled with stars.

The Seniors led the Grand March, forming a 58; the Juniors then formed the figure 59.

Bob Norman, Mary Jane Smith, Loretta Wheeling and Delano Webb take time out.



Between dances.

RICHLANDS TALENT

Mr. Toney and Miss Beavers harmonize.

Judy Johnson displays her singing ability.

Jane Clear taps her way to fame.

Brenda Young delights the audience.

SENIOR TRIP

LEFT: Charles Blankenship, Chaperone; Maurice Harrison, Eddie Norman, Eulis Patrick, David Brooks, Betty Lou Brown, Dorothy Davis, Ruth Richardson, Bill Edd DeBord, Patricia Jennings, Harold Smith, Carl Lawson, George McGaffee, Billy Haynes, Bill Robinette, Kathy Ellis, Martha Vermilya, Ronnie VanDyke, Herbert Spangler, Patty Reedy, Clydette Patterson, Ronald Shamblin, Jack Turner, Johnny Barnett, Mary Margaret Glenn, and Mike Bales.

Fifty seniors and two chaperones left school in a downpour of rain at midnight, May 27, on a bus which seated only 48 passengers. The two chaperones, Miss Huffman and Mr. Blankenship, were royally entertained and fed by the excited seniors.

At dawn the bus made its first stop, where the group visited the Atomic Museum at Oak Ridge. The next stop was at Lookout Mountain, Chattanooga, Tenn., where the students rode the steepest railroad in the U.S. A weary, but interesting, ride brought them to Atlanta where they spent their first night.

Early the next morning the bus was boarded for Silver Springs, Florida; there a ride in glassbottom boats and a tour through the Ross Allen Reptile Farm were made.

Late in the afternoon the bus reached Datona Beach the "Shangra-La" of the trip. Swimming, motor scooter rides, sun bathing, a trip to Marineland and a visit to the amusement park climaxed the trip to Florida.

A tired, sunburned group returned to Richlands, Friday night.

Scenes on the bus.

Best of luck
To the Cutest, sweetest girl I know
Cecil Coleman

Brownie,

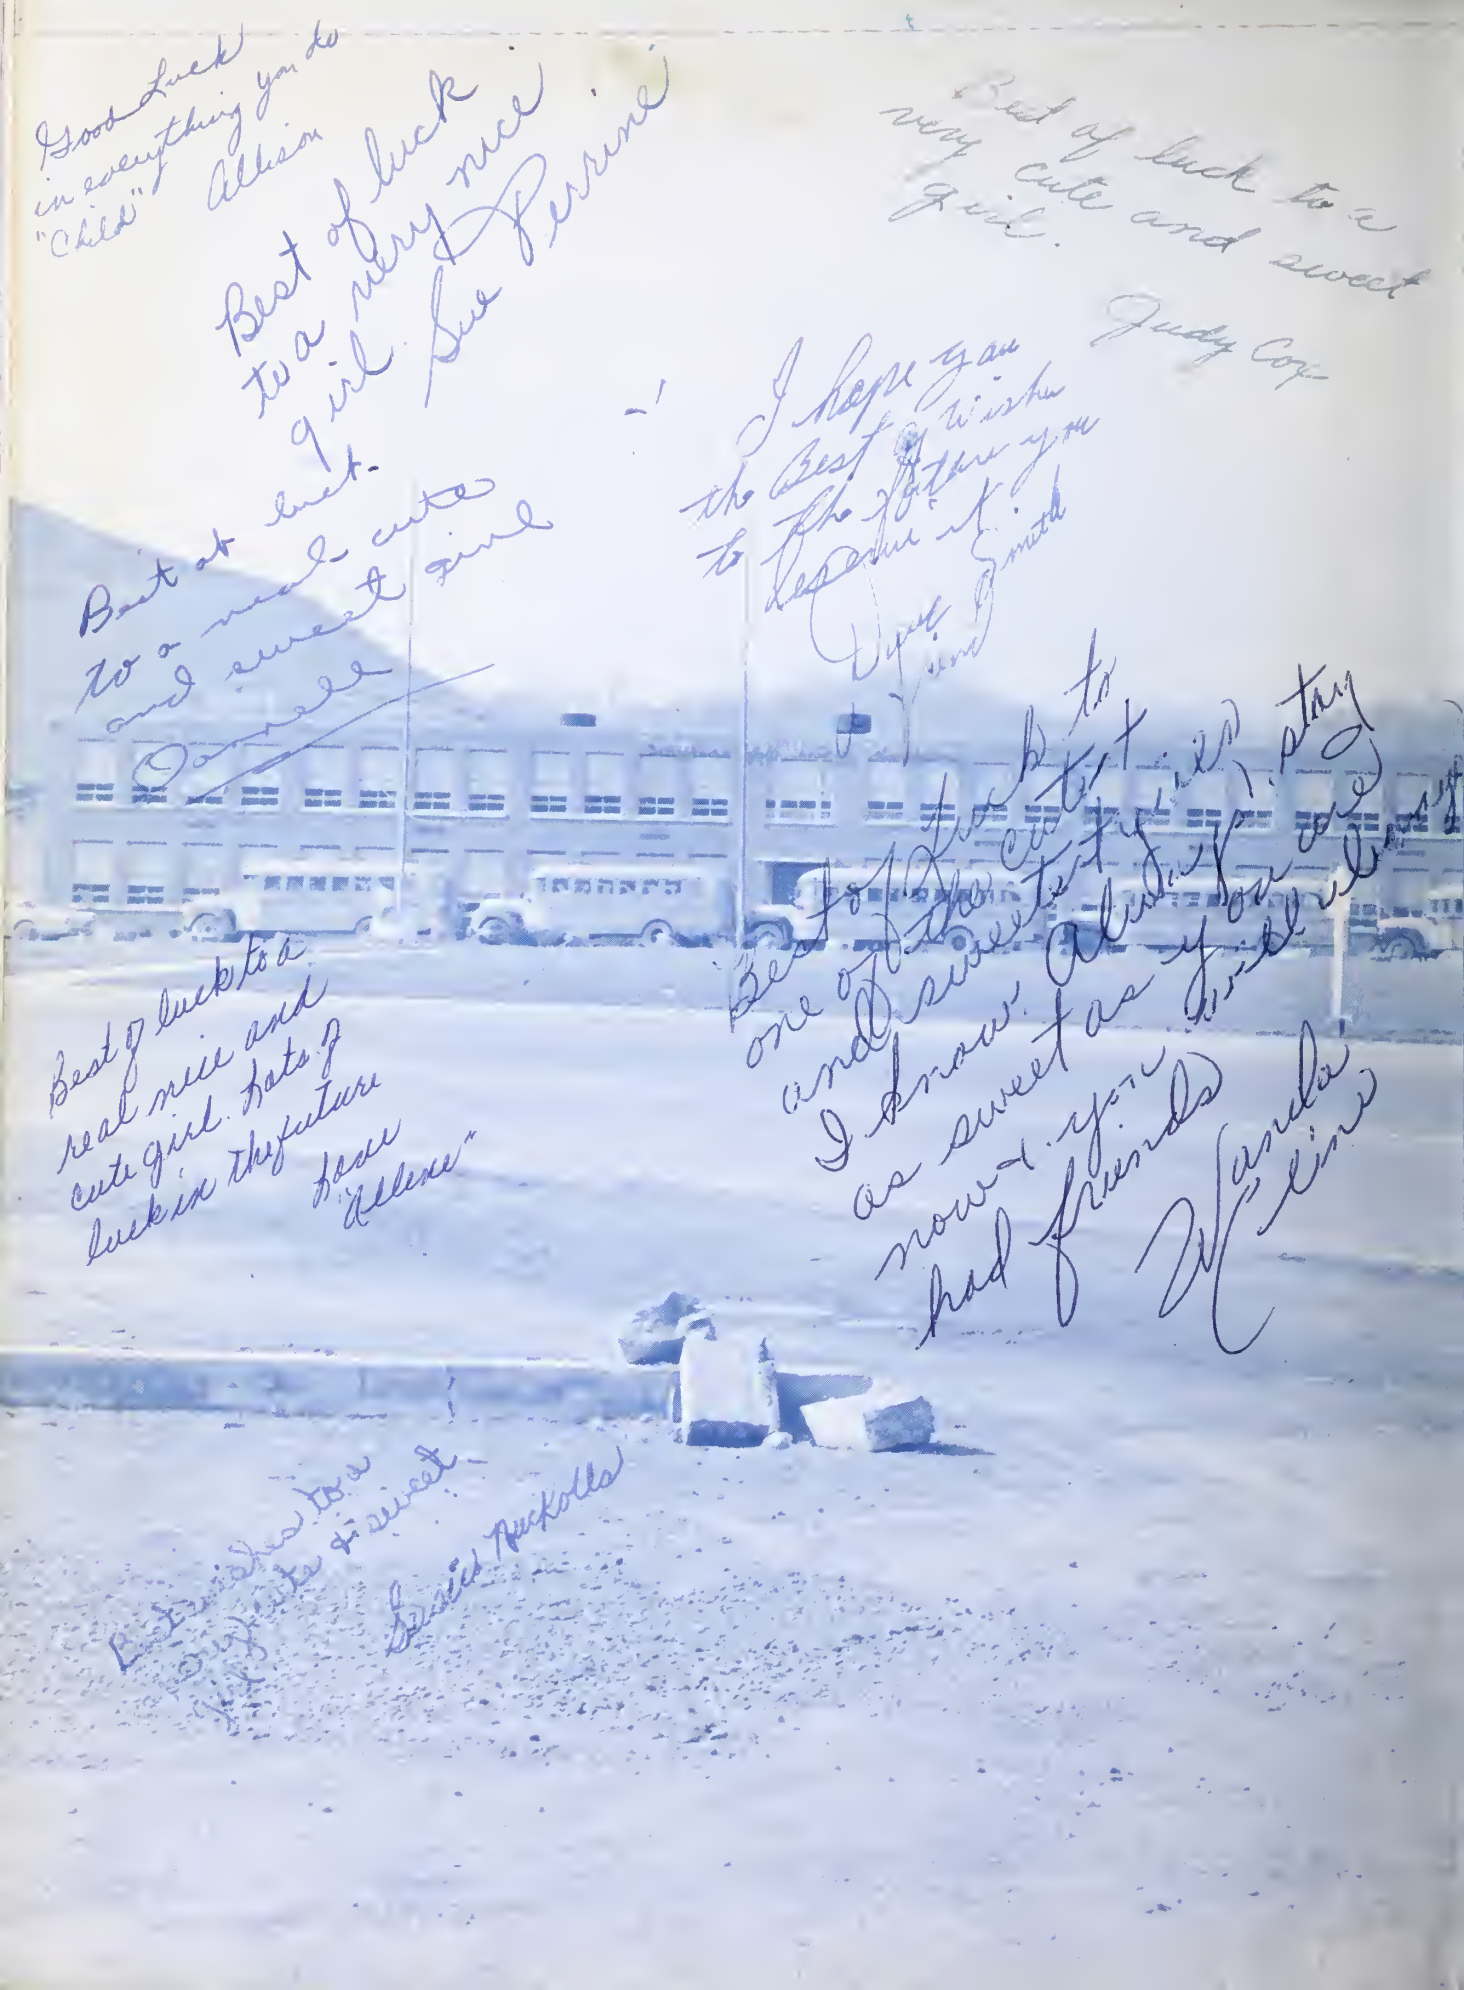
The best of luck always.

Always remember the wonderful times we've had at the R.H.S. Don't ever forget the wonderful times we've had together - you, Frances & I, & just wish it could be like this forever. Always stay as sweet as you are & I'm sure you will make your goal (set it high).

I hope we'll always be in contact with each other. I'm sure I'll never forget you & I hope you won't forget me.

With love always,

Margaret



Good Luck in everything you do "Child" Allison
